Debt Liquidation Drive . . . .

For many years, our college has been plagued by a debt, rising and lowering with the fortunes of the time, but eventually amounting to $144,000 by June, 1956. A little over a year ago, the Board of Trustees voted unanimously to stage the Debt Liquidation Drive in an effort to wipe out these obligations by 1960. As the L' Ami goes to press, the total cash and pledges have risen to $120,000.

The several segments of our constituency have been canvassed in the interests of the Campaign over the last sixteen months, with major commitments coming in from the Alumni Association and the classes graduating over many years, the Friends Church itself, the general public, corporations and foundations, the City of Newberg, and members of the Board. A most phenomenal development is that by Newberg citizens themselves in their eager response to the drive and their willingness to go "all-out" to help the college achieve regional accreditation.

We are thankful to God for these blessings which have come to us as an institution during the school year. An entire series of progressive developments may be envisioned to come about as a result of the successful culmination of the Campaign: possible accreditation, larger enrollment, major building projects, including dormitories, library, additional teaching and laboratory space, auditorium and chapel, music hall and fine arts gallery, housing for married students and faculty, expanded athletic facilities, and educational and cultural advantages not presently offered.

Dean Williams

Progress . . . .

The progress of the college has resulted from the actions of administrators, faculty and students who were ill at ease with the college as they found it. The writing of a new student body constitution is the result of the action of students who were dissatisfied with the former constitution. New developments in student finance originated in the dissatisfaction with the former financial methods. The recently inaugurated intra-mural program stems from the work of faculty and students who have been discontent with the lack of such a program. The smooth functioning of the Student Union is an evidence of the progress in student government. All of these evidences of progress indicate that our students are able and willing to accept the consequences of their own decisions as these decisions fit into the frame work of increasingly higher academic standards. What has been accomplished this year provides the basis for our assurance that greater progress will be made next year and on into the future.

"We should so live and labor in our time that what came to us as seed may go to the next generation as blossoms, and what came to us as blossom may go to them as fruit. That is what we mean by progress."—H. W. Beecher.

Appreciation . . .

CHARLES A. BEALS
College Pastor

". . . . A workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth," is true of the untiring service of Charles A. Beals, college pastor. His affiliation with George Fox College is bound not only by the ties of the Newberg Friends Church, but in active participation in campus life. He is a familiar and welcome figure at ball games, recitals, chapels, and prayer meetings and an ever-present and willing counselor in his study where students have worn the path to his desk. He unfailingly points each troubled student to the great Counselor. "With Him is wisdom and strength, He hath counsel and understanding."

Introduced this year at George Fox College by Coach Carpenter was a "small college" tournament. Participating in the first tournament were Multnomah School of the Bible, Concordia Lutheran, Western Baptist Seminary, and the host George Fox College. Future plans and hopes are to continue this tournament each year as a climax of the basketball season and to enlarge the number of schools participating.

The Foxmen, yielding a rather short team membership for college basketball, after losing 13 out of the first 15, still ran up an impressive 12-17 record.

Lacking the height advantage, the Foxmen lost many of their games on the boards. The Quaker opponents proved skillful on the rebounds causing the Foxmen to lose many games by five points or less.

During the second semester, Howard Crow 6' 4" freshman relieved the rebound trouble. Grabbing more than his share, he really boosted the Quaker morale.

Hopes look high for next year as only two seniors graduate. They are Bill Hopper, Captain of the team, and Dick Mott. Bill set two new records, one a 527 total seasonal points record and another a lifetime total of 1731 points.

Another interesting fact is that our college was the only one to place two men among the top ten scorers in this area. Bill Hopper tallied 527 points to come in fifth and Ron Willcuts chalked up 442 points to come in eighth on the rung.

Track

Lary and Gary Smith, two of Oregon's top prep javelin throwers, have scored in several meets this year. They have shared the first position alternately.

Dale Campbell practices starts as he prepares for the sprints.

Howard Crow threw the discus for his first time this spring. He scored high in many of the spring track meets.

Coach Carpenter pulls the trigger for Ned Wheeler, Larry Houston, Don Chitwood, and Dale Campbell in the sprints.

The baseball team ended the season with a 6-4 record after losing their first three games. Lacking power and depth, the Quakers put make-shift teams on the field many times. It was these teams that proved they wanted to play and did just that by winning.

The highlight of the season was the meeting of arch-rival Reed College on May Day. The Quakers showed fire and spirit as they beat Reed by a score of 5-2.

This is the first year a football spring training program has been operated at GFC. In view of the coming grid season, the foresight of Coach Carl Carpenter is displayed by this new development in the college athletic emphasis. Some of the men out for spring training this year are shown running plays.
